

LeadingAge PA Annual Conference Scholarship

Marketing & Public Relations Society (MPRS) wants to help develop the next generation of marketing and public relations leaders and encourage members' employees to pursue marketing or public relations as their career of choice. One or more scholarships will be made available annually by the MPRS Board of Directors to enable students employed by member organizations to attend the Leading Age PA annual conference. Following are guidelines which will be followed in order to determine the recipient(s) of the(se) scholarships.

1. Recipients must be employed by organizations which are members of the Marketing & Public Relations Society in good standing (dues are paid).
2. Recipients must have been employed by a member organization either part time or full time for at least one year.
3. Recipients must submit a scholarship application form in order to be considered for a scholarship. This includes a recommendation from their supervisor. These applications may be given to any current MPRS Board member or submitted online at www.mprsociety.org.
4. Recipients will be awarded a full registration and lodging for the Leading Age PA annual conference for the Marketing/Sales tract. Recipient will be responsible for transportation and meals.
5. The application deadline is April 30, 2019. Scholarship recipient(s) will be announced at the May MPRS meeting.
